

AN IMPROVEMENT on an old yarn we heard as a kid recently came to our attention. Its being put in a terse verse makes it sound a little better to some probably . . .

"You're sweet enough to eat,"

He said in accents warm and low.

"I do eat," said the sweet young thing;

"Where do you want to go?"

FOOD FOR THOUGHT can come in small packages. We present here a few parcels gathered by this columnist . . .

A successful man is one who can make more money than his wife can spend. And a successful woman is one who can find that kind of a man.

An executive is a man who knows how to get things done, and who to get to do it.

Mealtime is when the kids sit down to continue their eating.

People don't get weak eyes from looking at the bright side of life.

Children are a great deal more apt to follow your lead than the way you point.

The modern theory seems to be that a dollar saved is just a good time lost.

A man never get so rich that he can afford to lose a friend.

Men who make big money are careful with their small change.

Self-made men should be more careful in selecting the materials they use.

The good judgment of some people will never wear out. They don't use it often enough.

AS THE FIRST explorers go through the forest they cut blazes on the trees, marking the best path for those who come after them. Each blaze is a friendly help to those whom perhaps they will never see themselves, but whom, nevertheless, they will guide.

So in life each traveler blazes the trail for others. We may think that nobody cares what we do, and that it will have no influence on the world. But there is no one without influence, and no one who does not leave marks in the trail. Because we shrink away from a quicksand and go around a pitfall, someone who comes later will be the safer. Thus we have power to make the world better every day as we travel through it.—Young People.

IN CONNECTION with a continuing safety campaign being carried on through the employees of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, a poem entitled "If Everyone" was sent to the local exchange. We reproduce it here . . .

If everyone who drives a car Could be a month in bed, With broken bones and stitched-up wounds,

Or fractures of the head, And there endure the agonies That many people do,

They'd never need preach safety Any more to me or you.

If everyone could stand beside The bed of some close friend, And hear the doctor say, "No hope"

Before the final end, And see him there unconscious, Never knowing what took place, The laws and rules of traffic I am sure we'd soon embrace

If everyone could meet the wife And children left behind, And step into the darkened room Where once the sunlight shined, And look upon the vacant chair Where Daddy used to sit, I am sure that reckless drivers Would be forced to think a bit.

If everyone who takes the wheel Would keep a little prayer, And keep in mind those in the car Depending on his care, And make a vow and pledge himself To never take a chance, The great crusade for safety then Would suddenly advance!

THE WORLD abounds today in criticism—some derisive, some harsh, some helpful, most of it bitter and unthoughtful. An unknown author writes these timely words . . .

The wife, who dares reprove a man Invites a cruel tag: The slightest hint of finding fault And she becomes a "nag." But if a man indulges in The same behavior or— Has credited with giving her "Constructive criticism."

BUT POP—IT'S EMPTY — Little three-month-old Wade Barkley Myatt on a morning visit to Dad—Representative Ted W. Myatt of Cleburne, during session of Legislature in Austin, seems to have run into a little milk problem as Dad pays attention to bills before the House instead of his baby sitting job. Little Wade seems to be paying much attention to Pop's cigar since he is out of milk.

Bank Deposits Stay Above Five Million

Despite seasonal withdrawals for cattle feeding, crop preparation, ad valorem and income tax-paying by its patrons, deposits at the Farmers & Merchants National Bank in Hamlin continued to hold above the $5,000,000 mark in the recent official statement of condition, made at the close of business on March 12.

Deposits in the local institution had reached an all-time high of $5,205,097.23 in the previous statement on December 31, 1958. The

McClung Named New President of Pool Foundation

R. L. (Dick) McClung, manager of the Midwest Cooperative Oil Mill, was elected president of the Hamlin Foundation, Inc., at its first business meeting of the unit this year Monday evening at the El Mill guest house. He succeeds Bobby Crowley.

The foundation, builder and operator of the swimming pool at the Hamlin City Park, is composed of representatives of 15 civic and women's clubs of the community. Practically all of the organizations were represented at the Monday meeting.

Other officers named for the ensuing year were: C. L. Howard, vice president; Mrs. J. O. (Jane) Murphy, secretary-treasurer; and Johnny Steele, reporter.

Foundation officials announced that they are ready to receive bids for leasing the swimming pool for the forthcoming season, which will open about May 15. Bids may be submitted to McClung or Steele.

Next meeting of the foundation will be Monday, April 13, when bids will be considered, it is announced.

Signs on the fences at the pool again will be found soon, the directors decided. Funds thus raised are used for upkeep of the pool project.

Barbecue lunch will be served at the school at noon for all attendees, community leaders declare.

J. C. Bingham of Australia Takes Foursquare Post

Rev. J. C. Bingham, a native of Australia, is the newly appointed pastor of the Foursquare Gospel Church in Hamlin. He was announced this week by leaders of the congregation. He succeeds Rev. John Holland, who resigned the local pastorate several weeks ago to resume work in the Pacific Northwest, he having accepted a pastorate in the state of Washington.

Rev. Bingham came from Sydney, Australia, to attend the international convention of the denomination in Los Angeles, California, the first of February. He stayed over to conduct some revivals, then preparing to go back to Sydney when Dr. Howard P. Courtney, district superintendent, offered him the Hamlin church.

With only an hour to give his answer to accept the pastorate or catch his plane home, Rev. Bingham accepted the call. He told church leaders he had longed for this type of invitation. His acceptance, however, is conditioned on the coming of his family. Mrs. Bingham is carrying on a new work called the evangelistic center in Sydney. Immigration details must be worked out, he explains.

Rev. Bingham preached in the local church last Sunday, and will be in the pulpit henceforth.

Rev. and Mrs. Bingham have three children: Graham, 19; Eric, 17½; and Janet, 16.

Sororities of City To Lead Saturday Easter Lily Sales

Drive to raise funds for the Children's Foundation in the Hamlin community is being sponsored this week-end by members of the Xi Gamma Pi and Beta Theta Sororities, according to Mrs. John C. Bryant.

This drive is in addition to the direct-mail distribution of Easter seals already underway in the Abilene territory conducted by the Abilene Rehabilitation Center.

Representatives of the two sororities will sell paper Easter lilies in the business district of Hamlin all day Saturday. A booth will be placed in front of the Farmers & Merchants National Bank by the women, and passersby will be asked to contribute to the fund. The lilies will be given to all donors. No minimum amount is set for donors but leaders expressed the hope that many gifts would be liberal.

The booth will be operated by the sororities from 9:00 a. m. till 5:00 p. m.

It is pointed out that 80 per cent of all funds raised here will go to the Abilene Rehabilitation Center, where scores of area people of all ages have been treated for several years without charge. Two or three children from Hamlin are now in the center.

Money doesn't talk today. It just goes without saying.

EVANGELIST for the eight-day series of revival services beginning Sunday evening at the First Methodist Church will be Dr. Hubert Thomson, superintendent of the Abilene District of the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference. The services will continue through Sunday, March 29.

Hubert Thomson To Preach in First Methodist Revival

Palm Sunday evening, March 22, will mark the beginning of a series of evangelistic services at the First Methodist Church that will continue through the following Sunday, March 29, it is announced by Rev. Edmund W. Robb, pastor.

Evangelist for the eight-day series of services will be Dr. Hubert Thomson, of Abilene, superintendent of the Abilene District of the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference for five years. An outstanding speaker of the denomination in the area, Dr. Thomson had been pastor of churches in Amarillo and Canyon before becoming district superintendent.

Directing the singing for the revival will be Rev. Gene Moore, pastor of the Faith Methodist Church in Hamlin.

Services will be conducted each day at 7:00 p. m. and 7:30 p. m., except that no services will be conducted Saturday morning. A breakfast of hot doughnuts and coffee will be served each morning except Sunday at 6:37 o'clock for early risers, it is announced.

Producers May Redeem Grain to Sell on Markets

Commodity Credit Corporation loans to farmers on wheat and grain sorghum mature on the date of March 31, R. G. Rowell, chairman of the Jones County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee, advised.

There have recently been, says Rowell, a number of cases in which CCC loan wheat stored in local warehouses has been redeemed and sold at a profit, and he believes that it might be well for all producers who have wheat under loan to investigate this possibility before the wheat loan maturity date. Information as to whether the wheat may be redeemed and sold at a profit may, in most cases, be obtained from the warehouseman where the wheat is stored.

Notes and warehouse receipts covering all Jones County CCC grain loans are held at the CCC office in Anson, and producers who desire to redeem their grain may do so by repaying at that office the principal amount of their loans plus three and one-quarter per cent interest from the date of disbursement to the date of repayment. If the grain is not redeemed by the applicable maturity date, CCC will take possession of the grain in satisfaction of the loan.

Rowell states that in 1958 Jones County producers placed under CCC loan approximately 191,660 bushels of wheat, 5,855,000 bushels of grain sorghum, 267,748 bushels of oats and 18,169 bushels of barley.

Mac Fullerton Quits School Band Post to Take South Texas Job

Mac Fullerton, now completing his third year as band director in Hamlin High School and Hamlin Junior High School, last week submitted his resignation to the board of trustees. The resignation was accepted with regret, to be effective at the close of the present school year in May.

Fullerton has done a splendid work with the musicians of the two schools, declares C. F. Cook, superintendent of schools. This year he has had 68 musicians in the high school Piped Piper Band, 55 in the Junior High School Band and 40 in the beginners classes.

The band director told a Herald representative that he had accepted a band directing and class instruction position in a South Texas city where he would do work in both high school and college.

Jury of Three Women and Nine Return Verdict

A five-year suspended sentence was meted out late Monday to Mrs. Joe Stewart of Hamlin as her trial on a charge of manslaughter with a motor vehicle while intoxicated was completed in 104th District Court before Judge Owen Thomas at Anson.

The jury of nine men and three women delivered the verdict about two hours after receiving the case Monday afternoon. On the jury were three Hamlin community men—Alton Mayfield, Ed Gardner and L. R. Fowler. Paul Duncan of Stamford was foreman of the jury.

The case was developed when the December grand jury returned an indictment against Mrs. Stewart following the death of A. G. Hester, 79-year-old Tuxedo community farmer on Sunday, September 7, about 14 hours after he sustained a brain concussion when his car and that occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stewart collided in South Hamlin. The victim never regained consciousness following the accident, and he died in the Hamlin Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Stewart was driving the Stewart automobile.

Mrs. Stewart admitted from the witness stand that she had drunk one can of beer a few minutes before the accident.

The defendant was represented by Clay Coggin of Roby. The state was represented by District Attorney Tom Todd of Abilene.

Alvin Loiry to Preach For Central Baptists

Rev. Alvin Loiry of Rotan will preach at both morning and evening services Sunday at the North Central Avenue Baptist Church, it is announced by church leaders. He is pastor of the North Roby Baptist Church.

The Hamlin church has been pastorless since the resignation three weeks ago of Rev. Woodrow McHugh, who accepted a call to the Vincent Baptist Church in Northern Howard County.

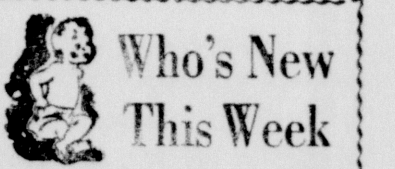

Rev. R. M. Parsley of Abilene preach at both services at the church last Sunday.

Two Key School Men Get New Contracts

Contracts of two key instructors at Hamlin High School were extended last week when the board of trustees met in special session. D. C. Andrews, head football coach at the high school, was given a one-year extension of his contract, which lasted one more year, making his new contract expire with the 1961-62 term. Contract of T. C. Blankinship, vocational agriculture teacher and FFA sponsor, was extended for another year.

Contracts of all five principals of Hamlin schools were extended another year at a recent meeting of the board.

VISIT FROM FORT WORTH. Mr. and Mrs. Ward McDowell of Fort Worth visited Mrs. McDowell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Tindal, several days.

Two new citizens have been recorded at the Hamlin Memorial Hospital since last week's report in The Herald. A boy and a girl, they are:

A boy for Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Money was born March 10. After having his weight checked at nine pounds 10 ounces, he accepted the name of David Marshall.

A girl arrived for Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Pitcock of Aspermont on March 13. The little miss weighed the scales at seven pounds 12 ounces. She will be known as Judy Beth.

SUPREME COURT BECOMING A POLICY MAKER

The controversy over late decisions and attitudes of the Supreme Court of the United States may seem complex and legalistic, but the fundamental point at issue can be stated simply. It is this: Has the court gone an undue distance beyond its proper role as a judicial body and, in effect, made itself a legislative body—and has it created law instead of confining itself to interpreting law?

The majority of the chief justices of our state Supreme Courts believe that the answer to this question is "Yes." They recently met in conference, and a 10-member committee prepared a report on the Supreme Court which was subsequently approved by chief justices of 36 of the states.

The report, which is phrased in restrained and thoughtful language, observes that the outstanding development in federal-state relations since the adoption of the constitution has been expansion of the federal power at the expense of state powers. Second only to this in importance has been the development of the immense power of the Supreme Court in both national and state affairs. The court, the report states, "... is not merely the final arbiter of the law; it is the maker of policy in many major social and economic fields. It is not subject to the restraints to which a legislative body is subject."

The report recognizes that there are points at which it is difficult to delineate a line separating the judicial function from policy making. However, it goes on, "But, if and when a court in construing and applying a constitutional provision or a statute, becomes a policy maker, it may leave construction behind and exercise functions which are essentially legislative in character. ... It is here that we feel the greatest concern, and it is here that we think the greatest restraint is called for."

Develop a Hobby

One of the most rewarding home pursuits the average citizen can follow is the development of a hobby or family project which enables him to enjoy the satisfaction of having done something constructive—outside the realm of his daily work.

In the present age, when television, movies, automobiles and many other luxuries we now enjoy take so much time, the art of finding pleasure and satisfaction at home, in the form of hobbies or projects, is sometimes overlooked.

Yet, from a family standpoint, the development of projects or the pursuit of hobbies, which provide both leisure and perhaps improvement of the home or yard, is entirely wholesome. If possible, families should work on projects together, with the children taking part and learning to take pride in what they achieve, as a family working together.

Watching television at home together is not necessarily the answer to the problem. This rarely helps one member of the family to know the other better, or to develop a sense of loyalty and love by working with him toward some common goal.

Nuggets of Thought

To feel much for others, and little for ourselves, to restrain our selfish and exercise our benevolent affections, constitutes the perfection of human nature.—Adam Smith.

Thought is the property of those only who can entertain it.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Think wrongly, if you please; but in all cases think for yourself.—Gothold Lessing.

Those who have finished by making all others think with them, have usually been those who began by daring to think for themselves.—Caleb C. Colton.

I have never in my life thought things out, nor have I known anybody who ever did. I have always had to live them out, thinking as I went along.—Carl Van Veen.

There is nothing new in urging judicial self-restraint though there may be, and we think there is, new need to urge it."

The fear of the state chief justices is that the federal power may advance to the virtual extinction of state power. To quote the report again, "We believe that strong state and local governments are essential to the effective functioning of the American system of federal government; that they should not be sacrificed needlessly to leveling and sometimes deadening, uniformity. ... We think that the overall tendency of decisions of the Supreme Court over the last 25 years or more has been to press the extension of federal power and to press it rapidly. ... we believe ... the Supreme Court too often has tended to adopt the role of policy maker without proper judicial restraint."

The report implements this view in detail, and discusses a number of Supreme Court decisions in various areas, labor relations among them. It finds that, "At times the Supreme Court manifests, or seems to manifest, an impatience with the slow workings of our federal system. That impatience may extend to an unwillingness to wait for Congress to make clear its intention to exercise the powers conferred upon it under the constitution. ..."

The report states, as said before, that the solution lies in restraint by the court itself. In the view of the 36 state chief justices, it is incumbent for the highest court "to be as sure as is humanly possible that it is adhering to the fundamentals of the constitution with regard to the distribution of power and the separation of powers, and with regard to the limitations of judicial power which are implicit in such separation and distribution, and that it is not merely giving effect to what it may deem desirable."

Opinions of Young People

A poll of American high school students conducted by Purdue University turned up the prevalence of opinions that are disquieting to anyone with the Red China story fresh in his mind.

Fifty-six per cent of the teen-agers favored the arbitrary division of large estates among the poor. So stated, this is indistinguishable from the "agrarian reform" by which Chinese communism sold itself to the majority in that country—and to many soft-headed "liberals" in this one.

Another 41 per cent of the students believe that freedom of the press—which means freedom of speech—is not worth fighting for, and 26 per cent more support unlimited search and seizure, without warrant, by the police.

Editorial of the Week

HIGH COST OF LIVING

Just the other day the chairman of the Federal Reserve Board was saying:

"Let us not be misled by comments to the effect that the consumer price level is now stable. The process of inflation in this country started over 10 years ago during the war-time period and with minor interruptions from time to time has persisted ever since."

The FRB chairman, William McChesney Martin, probably is the most consistent, the best informed and the most alarmed foe of inflation in Washington. He hardly had got the words we quote out of his mouth when the government's report on the consumer price index was released for November.

The index went up two-tenths of a point—matching the all-time record cost of living reached in July. Since July there had been a two-tenths of a point drop, one of the "minor interruptions" which merely are deceiving.

The high cost of living is still with us—and until we stop stimulating it, chiefly by government deficits, it will stay with us.—The Fort Worth Press.

RECALLING Other Years

★ Being news items taken from old files of Your Home Town Newspaper, The Herald

THIRTY YEARS AGO.

Checking over our old files of The Hamlin Herald, we find the following items of interest in the issue of March 15, 1929:

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Ferguson and sons, Thomas and S. C. Jr., and Burns Eakin left Sunday morning for Fort Worth to attend the Fat Stock Show.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Littleton went to Dallas Monday to attend a board meeting of the Baptist General Convention of Texas. They will also visit the Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth while away. Brown No. 1 oil well west of Hamlin, brought in last week, has been rated at more than 75 barrels a day. Much development is underway in the field.

In the baby show conducted last Thursday at the Palace Theater, Janet Johnson was named first place winner and Jo Ann Camfield second place in the unit less than 18 months of age. In the class up to three years of age, Helen Bigbee and Carl Childers Jr. were first and second place winners.

Gibson Chevrolet Company announces that a quarter of a million of the new six-cylinder Chevrolets are now on the road. Prices begin at $525 for the roadster.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

Among news briefs of interest in the Hamlin community 20 years ago were the following, reproduced from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated March 17, 1939:

Hamlin school students made a good showing last week-end in the annual Interscholastic League literary and athletic contests.

Wednesday R. E. Johnson, T. E. Harden and W. C. Russell of Hamlin and Mr. Staggs of Slaton left for Washington, D. C., on business concerning cotton. They are going by auto and will go and come two different routes of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fowler and three children have recently moved to Hamlin. They are from Stamford, and Mr. Fowler will handle ice this season for Phelps Ice Company.

Tom Williams, a student at Texas A. & M. College, spent the week-end here with his mother, Mrs. Ineth Williams, and other relatives.

Fire Saturday night destroyed another old landmark in the Hamlin community when the old McClaran house, built about 25 years ago went up in flames.

TEN YEARS AGO.

From the files of The Hamlin Herald we reprint goings-on in the community 10 years ago, the briefs below being from the issue of March 11, 1949:

Henry W. Stanley of San Antonio has been named as speaker for the annual membership banquet of the Chamber of Commerce set for next Thursday evening.

W. C. Russell, Dr. J. F. Hocott and Stanley Carmichael left Sunday night for a fishing trip in Mexico.

Upsetting the judgment of the 104th District Court, the 11th Court of Civil Appeals at Eastland last week reversed an order in which the Hamlin Veterans of Foreign Wars had been awarded possession of 9,483 bottles of beer. The beer had been seized by agents of the Liquor Control Board in a raid last May.

L. R. Witt and O. O. Roland, only two councilmen filing for places on the city ticket, won reelection by default, it was announced this week by city officials.

FIVE YEARS AGO.

The following news briefs are reprinted from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated March 12, 1954:

Isaac Marion Treadwell, 71-year-old farmer of the Plainview community southeast of Hamlin, was killed instantly and three other persons seriously injured in a head-on collision Sunday morning north of Anson.

An $80,000 project to construct a three-story addition for Sunday School facilities, and expand the auditorium to seat 125 more people was approved by members of the First Baptist Church Sunday evening.

Names of O. D. Roland for mayor and J. C. Culbertson for aldermen were filed on the city election ballot just before closing time Saturday at noon.

Clarence Griggs, about 30, was painfully injured about midnight Wednesday by a charge from a shotgun at the home of his father-in-law, E. J. Bruner, eight miles south of Hamlin. Bruner is being held in jail at Anson after his arrest by sheriff officers. No charges had been filed Thursday. Domestic troubles were said to have been cause of the shooting.

Second of Monthly Cattle Sales Set at Fort Worth Market Monday, April 9

Second of the monthly cattle auction sales at Fort Worth will be April 9, it is announced by Ted Goudy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly market summary. His release continues: The sale will offer both auction and private treaty selling. Special prizes will include a portable 2,000-pound livestock scale of the type used in beef performance testing work in the Southwest.

The scales will be on display in the lobby of the Livestock Exchange building prior to April 9. In the March sale a total of 3,902 cattle sold for $605,748.98.

Slaughter lambs opened steady at Fort Worth Monday. Trade on the higher grade lambs was active and in line with last week's best prices. The slaughter interests were rather selective, and the medium and lower grades were slower. About 65 per cent of the day's offerings were spring lambs of the new crop, the largest percentage of milk fat lambs so far this season arriving over the week-end for the Easter lamb trade.

Good and choice milk fat lambs sold for $21 to $22.50, and lower grade killing lambs drew $15 to $18. Good and choice old crop lambs sold from $17 to $18.50, with some woolled club lambs to $19.30. Cull old crop lambs ranged from $12 to $15 in most sales.

Cattle and calves were generally fully steady, and some slaughter calves cleared at $27 to $30.50, and common and medium sorts drew $24 to $27. Cull and commoner sorts drew $18 to $23.

Good to choice slaughter steers and yearlings sold from $26 to $27.50, and medium and plain sorts sold from $18 to $25. Fat cows sold from $18 to $21, and canners and cutters drew $13 to $18.50. Bulls were reported from $18 to $23, odd head higher.

Good and choice stocker steer calves drew $18 to $33.50, and heifer calves sold from $31 down. Stocker steer yearlings sold from $23 to $29, and feeder steers drew $26.50 downward.

Hogs and sows were 25 to 50 cents higher. Choice hogs sold at $16.50 to $17, and were tentatively sorted in that bracket. Sows drew $13.50 to $14, and some medium pigs sold at $13.50.

A public hearing on livestock brand inspection has been scheduled for April 6 at Fort Worth by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The hearing was called, in response to informal complaints, to determine if brand inspection at public markets is in the public interest or if such inspection now performed by the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, Inc., should be discontinued.

At present the Texas and Southwestern Association is authorized under the packers and stockyards act to inspect brands at all posted markets in Texas and to charge "reasonable and non-discriminatory fees" for the service. The fee now is eight cents per head on all cattle and calves sold at posted markets. Complaints from which the hearing stems contend that state law does not now require branding as a means of establishing ownership and that most cattle sold through posted markets are not branded or marked.

"The USDA has set the hearing to give all interested persons a chance to be heard," points out W. C. Ball, district supervisor of the packers and stockyards act at Fort Worth.

The hearing will begin at 10:00

Cotton Quiz

SPECIALIZATION.

The employment manager was interviewing a man who claimed to be a skilled mechanic. The personnel man explained that the opening required a really experienced mechanic. Whereupon the job applicant casually mentioned that he had worked for 20 years as a mechanic at a gigantic automobile plant. The interviewer was impressed.

"Exactly what did you do?" he inquired.

"I tightened bolt 734-853-A on assembly 839-412," was the reply.

Tax Refund Checks May Not Bear Full Name of Taxpayer

"Don't fret if that tax refund check from Uncle Sam doesn't show your full name," says Ellis Campbell Jr., district director of Internal Revenue Service, in a release this week to The Herald.

Due to mechanical limitations on the high speed electronic machines now printing tax refund checks, only the taxpayer's first initial of the given name or names is being used.

In rare instances, where a taxpayer's surname is unusually long, one or more letters at the end of the surname may even be dropped.

The IRS representative advises taxpayers to endorse their refund checks exactly as drawn. Then, if letters are omitted at the end of a surname, a second endorsement should be made showing the full surname.

Easter Seals Go on Sale in Area for Funds for Center

Some 42,000 Easter seals went into the mail Tuesday morning to people of Central Texas, including scores in Jones County. These seals are a message from the crippled children of West Texas to the people of this area asking their financial support to help them walk. The West Texas Rehabilitation Center in Abilene receives 80 per cent of the funds derived from Easter seals.

Frank W. Meyers Jr., president of the board of directors of the West Texas Rehabilitation Center, announced that the seals are being mailed to the following counties: King, Knox, Stonewall, Haskell, Fisher, Jones, Shackelford, Nolan Taylor, Callahan and Runnels.

The rehabilitation center treats children from all parts of West Central Texas free of charge regardless of race, color creed or financial status. The only requirement is that the child be referred by a member of the American Medical Association.

Meyers pointed out that the patient load at the center had grown to 268 patients, and in order to continue to give the type of service the center is known for, it is necessary that the Easter seal campaign bring in more funds this year.

LOGICAL REASONING.

The timid little man rose to leave. "Do you have to go home early—as usual?" exclaimed an irritated associate. "What are you—a man or a mouse?" "A man, of course," replied the little man with dignity. "What makes you so sure?" asked the antagonist. "Because," explained the little man meekly, "my wife is afraid of a mouse." Rubber bands at The Herald.

The enforced idleness will keep Cliburn from another scheduled trip to Russia.

State Representative Leon Thurman Introduces Bill to Tax Beer Heavier

On Tuesday, February 23, Representative Leon Thurman of Anson introduced a bill in the Texas Legislature to raise the tax on beer from $4.40 to $10 per barrel. In his weekly news release to The Herald, Thurman has this to say:

The present tax per barrel comes to one and one-third cents per bottle. A $10-per-barrel tax would be a fraction less than three cents per bottle; therefore, we do not believe this is a prohibitive tax and it is one that people should pay. The present tax brings in a revenue of around $17,500,000 per year, and the tax of $10 per barrel should bring in around $30,000,000 per year. With the state operating at the present time some $69,900,000 in the red, we need all the tax money that we can get.

We realize that when anyone introduces a tax bill on beer and voys against the wet people, in the next election the beer lobbyists will find someone to run for the Legislature, support him and pay all of his expenses. In the past this has been done every time someone introduced legislation not in the interest of the beer people. However, we still refuse to be coerced by any one group and insist on looking after the interests of the people of Texas.

Since we do not believe that this is an excessive tax to be paid by the people who drink beer, we will press for its passage.

The appropriations committee is attempting to get the budget bill before the House in the next two weeks. After this has been submitted, we will have all the tax bills to be considered in order to meet the appropriations bill. If the money is not raised at this time, the controller will not certify the appropriations bill and it will come back to the House for more taxes.

The work of the Legislature increases each day, and has gotten to the point where all members work from 8:00 in the morning until 5:00 in the afternoon, with a lot of them working until 10:00, 11:00 or 12:00 o'clock at night. As a member of the state affairs committee I am in meetings each Monday and Wednesday nights and seldom leave the House until 11:00 or 12:00 o'clock.

It is important that all bills be heard in a committee and their recommendations passed on to the House to inform the members of the status of the bills. The committee hears the arguments for and against the bills and gives the House the benefit of the information gained.

Dr. John C. Cory, Native of McCaulley, Gets PhD in England

Dr. John C. Cory of Phoenix, Arizona, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cory Sr. of Anson, was recently awarded a PhD degree from St. Andrews Ecumenical University College at Tottenham, England.

Dr. Cory, a native of the McCaulley community southwest of Hamlin, also is a graduate of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth.

The PhD degree was earned on the basis of work completed in the field of psychology and philosophy. His thesis was entitled "Psychological Elements of the Christian Faith."

Dr. Cory has been doing pastoral work in Arizona for the past 10 years.

AWARDED a PhD degree recently in Tottenham, England, was Dr. John C. Cory, native of McCaulley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cory Sr. of Anson. The degree was presented by St. Andrews Ecumenical University.

The work in the Legislature is interesting, and we trust the people of Texas realize the importance of it and the things that their representatives are trying to do for them. With the help of the people in the districts we will be able to pass constructive legislation which will be of benefit to all the people of Texas.

Cub Scouts Celebrate Birthday with Potluck Banquet Last Week

Cub Scouts of Hamlin community celebrated their thirteenth birthday with a potluck blue and gold banquet last week.

The tables and centerpieces were interesting and colorful. The Mardi Gras theme was carried out and Cubmaster J. E. McCoy Jr. was crowned King Rex by Jimmy Hawkins.

Bob Johnson showed films that were made on his Boy Scout trips in New Mexico and Valley Forge, Virginia.

Awards were made to the boys. The following officers for the 1952-53 Cub Scout year were presented: Gene Knabel, Cubmaster; L. A. (Buck) Joiner, assistant Cubmaster; Dr. M. L. Smith, Rev. Victor Ortiz, George Poe and Charles Connolly, directors; and Marvin Carlton, institutional representative.

The daily calendar, which sets the order in which bills will be heard in the second and third readings in the House, continues to get longer each day. There are many bills which are local bills and will be passed very easily. On the other hand, there are bills which affect all the people in the state and they will receive a considerable amount of debate before they are passed or killed.

Demonstration Club Women Attend Leader Training Meeting on Insurance

Twelve adults and three children attended the leader training meeting on health insurance conducted by Mary Y. Newberry, Jones County home demonstration agent, in her office on Wednesday morning at 10:00 o'clock.

The agent told the group that health insurance has increased more than 500 per cent in the past 10 years with only life insurance surpassing it in dollar volume. The purpose of buying insurance is to protect you and your family against the financial hazards of unpredictable illnesses. It is up to you and your family to determine needs. Farm families are now spending 77 per cent as much as urban families on medical care. In 1935 the average farm family spent about $240 for medical care. This was about four times what was spent per family in 1941. Types of protection, two principal ways of protection, the different terms used in insurance, points to consider when buying insurance and points that will help make an insurance program were among the things the agent discussed.

A. V. Womack, an insurance representative, was present and talked to the women on health insurance and its importance.

Others present at the leader training meeting were Mrs. E. B. Littlefield, Mrs. Wayne Hendrick, Mrs. Sherwood Tucker, Mrs. Vernon Stanley, Mrs. C. H. Butler, Mrs. D. L. Butler, Mrs. Fate Price, Mrs. C. H. Watts, Mrs. J. E. McCoy and Mrs. Sue Smith.

The leaders present will present this program to their own Home Demonstration Clubs at a later date.

Date and Theme for Annual Flower Show Set by Garden Club

Date and theme for the spring Flower Show were chosen at the regular meeting of the Hamlin Garden Club at the home of Mrs. Roy Carmichael. "Garden of Enchantment" will be the theme of the annual show on April 25 in the high school gymnasium.

Kirby Clayton, county agent, brought an inspiring talk on "Conservation of Our Soil" as the program feature of Friday's session. Opening his talk with the quotation from Jeremiah, "Behold, the whole land is desolate, because nobody cares," he sought to inspire his hearers to inspire others to be more mindful of our waste of soil and products. He stressed that in conservation as in other things, our main problem is people; so complacent and satisfied with things as they are, that we are neglecting to prepare for the future generations.

Mrs. P. A. Fowler spoke on "Spring Flowers." Spring arrangements of daffodils and violets were made by Mrs. Ed Bailey and Mrs. Clyde Grice.

Members were reminded of the tour planned to the Chander Gardens at Weatherford on April 8.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin.—A possible shaft of light has pierced the murky tunnels of legislative tax study in the form of an "in-between" type money raising bill.

An omnibus tax measure introduced by Representatives R. L. Strickland of San Antonio and Wesley Roberts of Lamesa would tax a raft of things not previously hit, but avoid the label "general sales tax." It is regarded as a possible compromise between Governor Price Daniel's tax program and Representative Frates Seeligs's general sales tax, neither of which has attracted widespread support.

Strickland and Roberts estimate their proposal would raise from $200,000,000 to $300,500,000, an impressive sum even in the face of current huge needs.

New tax sources it would tap include sales of real estate, bonds, debentures, corporate stocks, occupancy of a retail establishment, transportation of persons and commodities, hotel and motel use, and trading stamps. It would increase the natural gas production tax and raise sales taxes on new cars, cosmetics, playing cards, radios and TV sets and raise taxes on telegraph and telephone companies.

"Strings" attached to the bill are that after the state deficit is paid off, the money raised could be used to provide school teachers a $600-a-year raise, add $13,000,000 to higher education programs and $2,250,000 to the hospital program.

No Hurry.—In terms of decisions, the tax program has made no dramatic forward strides.

Representative Frates Seeligs of San Antonio introduced his 1.5 per cent general sales tax measure.

howls of protest over Houston's "water grabbing." TRA filed a petition urging that Houston's application be dismissed and also filed an application for the same permit Houston is seeking.

A hearing on Houston's application had been set for April 6, but the North Texans are asking for delay. Indications are that such a set-to between Texas' major cities probably cannot be settled for some time.

Higher Tuition Asked.—Commission on higher education is recommending the Legislature adopt a new system of automatic tuition increases for state supported colleges.

By the commission's formula tuition would be in proportion to the college's spending. If legislative appropriations to the college went up, so would tuition.

It was estimated the formula would raise present tuition for in-state students from $100 a year to about $125 to $137.50.

Many students protested that the hike would be an undue hardship on the 65 per cent who earn part or all of their college expenses.

Don't Stop Now.—Governor Daniel's state-wide water committee is asking the Legislature to restore proposed cuts in the water board budget.

Governor Daniel told a meeting of the state-wide water group that water development in Texas needs all the $1,700,000 asked by the water board. Legislature budget board recommended only $900,000.

Daniel said he felt more water planning had been accomplished in the past two years than ever before in the state's history. To cut back now, he said, would amount to "complete surrender" to federal control.

FORGOTTEN.

So many substitutes have been discovered by scientists that it's difficult to remember what it was we needed in the first place.

LACK OF FAITH.

Two young fellows were walking down the street one pitch black night. One of the boys had a flashlight with him, and he pointed it upward and turned on the switch. A brilliant beam of light resulted. He turned to the other boy and said:

"I'll give you a dollar if you can climb all the way up that beam."

The second boy hesitated for a minute and then refused. "I know you, Jim," he objected. "I'd get half way up, and you'd flick off the switch."

Brutus, slayer of Julius Caesar, was later defeated in battle and took his own life.

SHE'S CIVILIZED.

"Now that you're married," said the insurance agent to the bridegroom, "I suppose you'll want some additional insurance on yourself."

"I don't see why," replied the new husband. "She's not dangerous."

Beavers live in colonies which may persist for centuries.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

"Now, frankly," warned the doctor, "I must inform you that this is a very serious operation. Four out of five patients do not survive. Is there anything I can do for you before I begin?"

"Yes," said the patient, "help me on with my pants."

Coffee was first used in Abyssinia in the ninth century.

VISIT AT LUBBOCK.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Rodgers and daughter, Gloria, and Martha Gage spent the week-end in Lubbock visiting with their children and families. Mr. and Mrs. James Rodgers and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Posey.

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

D. C. Andrews of Hamlin High School was given a one-year extension of his contract with the school when the board of trustees met last week in special session. His contract now runs through the 1961-62 term.

Men Interested in Pony League Invited To Thursday Session

Men of the community with boys of Pony League baseball age (13 to 15 years of age) and others interested in a summer program for youngsters of the community are urged to attend a meeting tonight (Thursday) at the Hamlin High School cafeteria, according to George Campbell, last year's president of the Pony League in Hamlin community.

Plans will be made for carrying out a program for boys of Pony League age, Campbell says.

Enough boys are in the community to have at least three Pony League teams of from nine to 15 boys each, and Aspermont has asked for the privilege of coming into the Hamlin loop with one team. This latter provision will be discussed at the Thursday evening session.

A queen bee can lay as many as 3,000 to 4,000 eggs a day.

HHS Preparing to Enter Area School Events of League

Students of Hamlin High School will participate in practically all the Interscholastic League literary and athletic events for Class AA schools of the area during the next two months, it was announced this week by school officials.

For reasons of convenience of the five schools of the district—Seymour, Haskell, Stamford, Anson and Hamlin—the events will be held at different periods.

One-act play contests will be staged at Haskell High School on Saturday March 21. Mrs. A. A. Wade is directing Hamlin's entry in this session.

District track and field meet for the five schools will be conducted at McMurry College in Abilene, where modern facilities and ample room are available.

Get meet for players from the five schools will be conducted at the Haskell Country Club on Friday, April 13.

Literary events, which will provide events for the largest group from Hamlin High School will be conducted at Haskell High School on Saturday, April 14.

Baseball Bug Already Biting at High School

Already some interest is being engendered in baseball at Hamlin High School, declares Coach D. C. Andrews, although the season will not actually begin until about the middle of April—after the close of the track and field season. The district track meet will be held April 11 at McMurry College in Abilene.

Andrews expects to have a fair sized delegation of boys working out for the HHS nine. A regular schedule with area teams will be worked out, he says.

SPRING IS ALMOST HERE—Pushing the season a bit is attractive secretary Joan Heersen who wets her feet during her lunch hour in the warming waters of Galveston Bay at Texas City. The 20-year-old Joan is a secretary for a chemical company there.

Stamford and Olney Junior Tracksters Win Top Spots at Hamlin Track Meet

Athletes from Stamford Junior High School won seven first places to take high honors in the Hamlin Junior High School invitational track and field meet Saturday at Hamlin despite the high winds and sand that probably held down records. Olney was runner-up in the ninth grade division with 30 points, behind Stamford's 70 points.

In the eighth grade division Olney finished first with 33 points and Anson was second with 31.

Mitchell and Elliott of Stamford took two first places each in the meet. McCarty of Seymour also won two first places.

Finishing third in the ninth grade events was Hamlin with 22½ points. Seymour scored 20, Anson 12½, Albany 7, Haskell 6, Roby 5, and Rotan 2.

Stamford racked • 13 points among the eighth graders for third place, trailed by Hamlin with 11, Jim Ned 10, Albany 9, Seymour 8, Rotan and Merkel 5, Haskell 4, and Roby 3.

Social Security Man Due in City Friday

People having questions of problems about their social security are invited to contact the representative. He will be at the Hamlin fire station at 10:00 o'clock a. m.

Installation of New Lights Planned Soon At Little League Field

Among improvements planned at the Little League baseball field on Southwest Avenue F in Southwest Hamlin within the next several weeks is installation of additional electric lights for the playing diamond, according to Dr. M. L. Smith, president of the Little League, for boys 10 to 12 years of age.

Lighting at the field at present fails to meet minimum requirements of the national Little League requirements, it is pointed out. Play-offs were shifted last year from Hamlin principally on account of this discrepancy. The lighting project is one of several proposed to be carried out with funds being raised this weekend under direction of Bill Foster, in which a goal of $1,000 has been set.

Andrew Carnegie, industrial tycoon and philanthropist, came to this country from Scotland at the age of 10.

People of Area Warned About Danger Of Rattlesnakes as Vipers Move Out

This is the time of the year when poisonous reptiles, such as the very unpopular but well known rattlesnakes, are coming out. The Hamlin territory still has a big population of the snakes despite operations of such snake hunters as Jack Russell and Don Pyron in recent weeks.

According to H. D. Dodgen, executive secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission, March is the month when the weather is just cool enough to keep the snakes in their dens and just warm enough to make it nice for an outing.

"This situation will not last long," Dodgen said. "Once the warm weather arrives in force, the rattlers will leave these dens and begin to slip through the brushlands or just lie behind rocks and drowse in the sun."

Dodgen described the large catches made recently at Sweetwater as proof enough that there will be plenty of snakes in Texas when hot weather comes. Some 3,000 to 6,000 rattlesnakes were captured during the two-day snake hunt held in that ranching area.

"Be extra careful when on an outing," Dodgen warned. "These killers usually hide in places where you'd least expect them to be. Don't reach behind a rock or a stump until you've checked for snakes. When preparing to lift wood from a pile, jab it a few times with a stick to make sure there are no rattlers there. Know all the precautions and remember them when you're in the country or even in your own back yard."

He stressed the importance of at least one in a group knowing the first aid for snake bites. "If you're going into the woods, know how to doctor a snake bite. There are all kinds of pamphlets out on this subject. Knowing it may save a life."

A broker was originally a retailer of goods belonging to another.

Mrs. Juanita Scott, Nurse at Hamlin, Succumbs Monday

Mrs. Juanita Louise Scott, 36-year-old former nurse, died shortly before noon Monday after an illness of about four months with cancer. The end came in the Hamlin Memorial Hospital, where she had cared for scores of others in recent months.

Born June 24, 1922, in Fisher County, she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Cooper. She married Buck Scott, farmer and rancher, at Hamlin on September 4, 1939. The couple had lived north of Hamlin for several years. She was a member of the Church of the Nazarene and the Rebecca Lodge at Rotan.

Funeral services were conducted for the young mother Tuesday afternoon at the Hamlin Church of the Nazarene. Officiating was Rev. R. T. Jarrell, the pastor.

Burial was in the Hamlin East Cemetery under the direction of Hamlin Funeral Home. Pallbearers were D. D. Donham, M. S. Johnson, Elbert Payne, Frank Allen, Cecil Brown and Riley Matchett.

Surviving Mrs. Scott are her mother, Mrs. Terry Cooper; her husband, Buck Scott; one son, Terry Ronald, and one daughter, Julia Ann, of Hamlin; and four brothers, Elmer, Reed, Roy and Paul Cooper, all of Hamlin.

NOT A CHANCE.
The talkative lady was telling her husband about the bad manners of a recent visitor.
"If that woman yawned once while I was talking to her," she said, "she yawned 10 times."
"Perhaps she wasn't yawning, dear," the husband said. "Maybe she wanted to say something."

Hamlin Lions Club Participating in Summer Camp for Crippled Children

Governor Price Daniel has declared March 16-21 as Texas Lions Camp for Crippled Children Week to focus attention on the unique camp at Kerrville which has provided free summer recreation for 3,539 handicapped children during the past six seasons.

Hamlin Lions Club, which has participated for several years in the operation of the Texas Lions Camp for Crippled Children, at its Tuesday noon luncheon meeting, took note of observance of the special week.

The camp was conceived and chartered 10 years ago this month. It is supported by 37,000 Texas Lions and their friends, who have contributed approximately $1,500,000 to construct and operate the camp.

Its facilities are designed especially to serve the blind, deaf, mute and crippled. Fifteen permanent buildings — including a chapel, infirmary and giant recreation center—dot 504 hillside acres.

The camp, probably the only one of its kind in the world, is free to any eligible handicapped boy or girl in Texas between seven and 16 years of age.

The children camp out under the stars at Inspiration Point, learn to swim in a specially designed pool, develop talents in the spacious arts and crafts building, many of them learning new skills; participate in stunt night and camp-wide activities — and have fun in general.

Prospective campers are being sought now for the six, two-week sessions this summer. Applications are handled only on the local level by the 780 Lions Clubs in the state, who also arrange transportation to and from the camp.

Now is the time to refer the names of handicapped boys and girls to the local Lions Club, of which B. V. Newberry is president, for the placing of applications.

Foster Will Lead Drive for Funds For Little League

Quick campaign to raise funds for operations of the Little and Pony Baseball Leagues in Hamlin is scheduled to begin tomorrow (Friday) morning, according to Bill Foster, co-chairman.

The summer-time program for boys of Little League age, 10 to 12 years of age, and for the Pony League, 13 and 14 years of age, is part of a national program for baseball for the youngsters.

Such programs have been in operation in the Hamlin community for four years. Certain standards of field and equipment must be met in order to participate in the competitive play that leads to regional, state and national play-offs, explains Dr. M. L. Smith, president of the Little League.

Funds raised in the drive will be used to further improve playing fields, install new lighting to meet minimum league requirements, purchase uniforms, balls and bats for the forthcoming season, league officials declare.

More than 100 boys in the community are affected by the league activities, it is pointed out.

Workers for funds in the drive, as appointed by Foster, are George Poe, Starr Inzer, L. C. Bonds and R. L. McClung.

ANDRA MARTIN AND JAMES GARNER are an exciting new love team, as they romance together for the first time in Warner Bros. "Up Periscope," technicolor-WarnerScope drama due to show Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Ferguson Theater.

A handsome plaque in recognition of 15 (actually 18) years of service in the Hamlin community has been awarded to Claude Lancaster, Western Auto Associate Store owner. The plaque, engraved with his name, was presented to Lancaster by a Western Auto Company representative, R. E. Bailliff, at the Hamlin Lions Club meeting Tuesday.

Lancaster was one of 2,363 dealers throughout the United States who received awards as tribute to their service records with Western Auto for periods of 20, 15, 10 and five years.

The company was started as a mail order business in Kansas City, Missouri, in 1909 by George Pepperdine to supply Model T Ford owners with such parts as windshields, tps, spare tires and tail-lights, Lancaster pointed out.

Henry Ford had left these parts off his cars to make the price more attractive.

"Pepperdine's original investment was only a $5 bill, which he spent for postage stamps to mail his sales circulars," Lancaster said. "He managed to get the circulars printed on credit."

Now, half a century later, Western Auto is celebrating a spectacular growth into a nation-wide merchandising organization with more than 3,600 dealers and 375 company owned stores, and annual sales approaching a quarter of a billion dollars, Lancaster declared.

Western Auto's lines have been expanded until the company offers more than 14,000 items that include auto parts and accessories, sporting goods, bicycles, radios and televisions, paint, toys, gas and electric ranges, air conditioners, freezers, refrigerators and housewares.

James Garner Uses Athletic Skills in Film at Ferguson

James Garner, an amiable 200-pounder, is equally at ease on the golf course, on horseback or under the water. In the first area his interest is purely personal; in the other two, it's a professional matter.

Having whipped up a tremendous success on horse and at the gaming table in Warner Bros. "Maverick" TV series, Garner has now shown his professional competence under water as the star of the Warner film, "Up Periscope," which shows Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Ferguson Theater.

In this technicolor-WarnerScope picture he plays a Navy officer and under-water demolition expert who tinkers with submarines, blows up Japanese wharfs and in general conducts a wet one-man campaign against the enemy. When he's dry he's making love to Andrea Martin or arguing with Edmond O'Brien.

Garner is considered one of Hollywood's finest amateur golfers and may be found on any week-end at one of Southern California's drive-and-putt pastures. On week days, of course, he is busy getting Brei Maverick into and out of trouble for these nation's television fans—except sometimes when he turns his talents to theatrical motion pictures as he does in "Up Periscope."

The Warner Bros. production was directed by Gordon Douglas from a script by Richard Landau.

Army Man Says Communist Would Be Terrible Foe

Although the average Communist soldier is not too well equipped, often is ignorant and filthy, he would be a formidable enemy if we are forced into conflict on a broad scale, declared a 20-year Army veteran in effect when he spoke at the Tuesday noon luncheon meeting of the Hamlin Lions Club at the oil mill guest house.

The soldier, Sergeant Frank E. Lockman, now in recruiting work at Abilene, spent three years in Germany along the Russia border and made visits into the interior of the Soviet Union, and then spent more than a year in Korea at Communist prison camps.

"Average Communist soldier in Russia is filthy, poorly clad, uneducated and drinks to excess. He is inquisitive, does not believe the stories of high standards of living in America that include wrist watches, drinking fountains and automobiles—but he is ruthless," declared Lockman. He said that 70,000 of the 90,000 Communist prisoners at one camp in Korea were actually anti-Communist.

He pointed out that the Oriental Communist does not fear death, and will do anything in desperation for the promise of improvement over their lots in life.

Besides Lockman, other guest at the Tuesday luncheon was R. E. Bailliff of Stamford, who presented a 15-year service plaque to Claude Lancaster on behalf of the Western Auto Stores.

Motorists Warned About Last Minute Inspection Rush

Texas Department of Public Safety warned motorists of the inconveniences of a last minute rush at safety inspection stations before the deadline, April 15.

More than 3,000,000 of the 4,000,000 Texas motor vehicles have yet to receive their 1959 safety inspection sticker.

In urging motorists to "do their safety shopping early" and avoid the rush at the 4,400 inspection stations, the safety department warned that those who fail to do so will be subject to traffic summons after April 15. The average cost of the safety inspection since the program began six years ago is $1.19 for needed repairs and $1 for the inspection fee.

The inspection stations check such items as brakes, lights, horns, mirrors and windshield wipers, and have found that 39 per cent of the vehicles have needed some adjustment or repair.

Colonel Homer Garrison Jr., director of the safety department, said this is an improvement over the general condition of motor vehicles six years ago when the inspection program began. At that time more than 50 per cent needed repairs.

"We hope that owners of motor vehicles will take advantage of the inspection facilities now and avoid the inconveniences of waiting in line as the April 15 deadline approaches," Colonel Garrison said. "This safety factor is important to safe driving on our streets and highways—and that is our goal."

English Class at HHS Completes Unit of Work on Life Careers

English II classes at Hamlin High School have just completed a unit on careers, in which each student reported on a book setting forth the advantages and the disadvantages of a chosen vocation, declares Mrs. Charles Scott, the instructor. In addition to the oral reports, posters were made to represent the careers.

Lining the blackboard of Mrs. Scott's English room are posters on every vocation from deep sea diving to nursing, from ranching to counseling, from athletics to photography, from medicine to teaching. One poster announces, "There is a Job for Lou," another extols the U. S. Navy as a career; still another tells of scientific research. All illustrate in a colorful manner the great variety of work available to the youth of today.

Perhaps new vistas have been opened to boys and girls who have not chosen a vocation, since the unit was not only enlightening but interesting, declares Mrs. Scott.

Usually it's the silent partner who has the most to say.
